The Cataract Government

Subject Matter:

Courts serve not justice but revenge to victims, & public feel lucky to survive one more day like chickens in butcher shops. In media, photos of victims – like raped & murdered RG Kar Hospital doctor; dead body of child Tamanna Khatun of Kaliganj killed in bomb blast – are shown so much blurred & call recording of politician Anubrata Mondal abusing a respected Bolpur PS's Officer is played so much muted that it feels like public have cataract-eyes. The incidents are never forgotten but responsibility to provide for families lowers public voices; while luck favours public, victims are reduced into feeble figment of imagination & seem to be real humans not anymore. Police dragged on road Utter Dinajpur raped & murdered victim; kicked a school teacher during protest; lathicharged patient-parties in National Medical College & Hospital. While putting own lives at stake to contain inhumanity in society, police itself have become so much sick that Airport Police Station failed to keep preventive vigilance to provide safety even to their own families; thus, instead of treating police as victims & treating them with care & compassion, public hold police in disdain. The delinquent police officers will be censored to curb hatred, irresponsibility, lawlessness, & unaccountability in society. Keeping rational mind on the matter of Airport Police Station's delay in diarising complaint dt. 18th Oct 2025 & unwillingness to register FIR, u/s 125 of BNS (336 of IPC), requested formulation of guidelines for vendors to make this city children & aged friendly & necessary orders to the Airport PS.

Respected Official,

Reason for delay in filing this appeal:

To allot registration number to the Complaint dt. 18th Oct 2025, recipient police officer Eti Neogi waited for getting enquiry done on 19th Oct 2025 (2:10 PM) to decide whether it would be registered as General Diary or the First Information Report. Due to festivals and the recipient police officer on leave, registration number not allotted by other police officers of the Airport Police Station. Lastly on 31st Oct 2025, ASI Arun Kumar Biswas at the Airport Police Station advised my father to wait for the recipient police officer to return from leave.

Cause of action:

Background Please go through the herewith enclosed Complaint dt. 18th Oct2025 submitted by my father at Airport Police Station.

Reason for filing this appeal The enquiry police officer, who visited the place of incident, opined that FIR against the accused would not be lodged because nobody is injured.

Personal reason for filing this appeal I need you to understand that in February of this year, my father suffered fracture of the left shoulder, and I neglected my deteriorating health condition to take my father to doctors, do bandages at home, get medicine from the Military, constantly do the ECHS formalities until the treatment got completed, and doing so in July of this year I suffered haemorrhage and very severe pain for half month and had to rush to emergency; I am avoiding surgery because I am primary care provider to my 62 years old father; thus, for me hospital admission is the last option. Due to the accused, my father could have been injured while watering plants, and so I could have been deprived of much needed rest. I hope, now you would understand the reason for escalating the matter with you till my health permits.

Contentions: The West Bengal Police has taken no lesson from Mumbai's Ghatkopar advertisement hoarding collapse incident, which killed 14 and injured 74. Being within the four corners of law, the West Bengal Police evades law saying that action not taken because complaint not received against illegal and dangerous permanent advertisement hoardings in Calcutta, in front of which the West Bengal Traffic Police is posted all day long.

Now, the enquiry police officer not only admonished but also directed the accused to pay compensation for damages to my father, which the accused readily agreed to. Aami bhalo tumi bhalo, baki sab ko gaddhe mae dalo¹.

Ground for registering FIR against the accused For getting service of the accused, had the enquiry police officer come with its family, and its own little child would have got injury to head because the accused preferred business profit at the cost of public safety; then, could the enquiry police officer dare to apologise to the child saying "Dear, forgive me for I have committed mistake; I should not have done compromise between the complainant and the accused, rather I should have registered FIR against the accused". When the accused is dealing with public, responsibility of the accused increases thousand times more. Given the careless attitude of the accused, it foreseeably endangers the life of its own employees, its customers, the neighbours, the school students who occasionally stop on their ways to get flowers from our plants, and the people of our locality who often visit to get flowers for doing worship. The infringement is on large scale affecting the fundamental right to life and personal safety of the public in magnitude such as to shock the conscience of court and government, which is incontrovertible and ex facie glaring:

*Storing of clay to a height of 7 meters namely about 21 feet height renders clay so stored to slide and to endanger human life or the personal safety of others. The very fact that such an act has been caused to be done constitutes the offence under S.336 of the Indian Penal Code and it is not necessary that any untoward incident should have taken place pursuant thereto to constitute the offence under S.336.²

In the present matter, even the incident has happened as stated in the Complaint dated 18th Oct 2025, which strengthens and further reinforces prosecution of the accused; thus, the State is affected, and in public interest there may be a case with cause title the accused versus the State of West Bengal, u/s 125 of BNS (336 of IPC), cognizable and bailable, which read as:

125. Act endangering life or personal safety of others.—
Whoever does any act so rashly or negligently as to endanger human life or the personal safety of others, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to two thousand five hundred rupees, or with both, ...

Ground for action against police On the part of the enquiry police officer it has been absolutely unprofessional to excuse and effectively provide unwarranted privacy to the accused, who is dealing with the public every day, by allowing the matter to be settled amicably between the accused and the complainant thereby depriving unsuspecting public a reason to be vigilant.

For safety of the public, the police cannot keep an eye on every single vendor to see if the vendor has taken appropriate measures against potentially dangerous things in its use. The incident happened is not due to force majeure, act of a stranger, or default of a person who could have been injured, but due to greediness and negligence on the part of the accused. Due to inadequate police training, the enquiry police officer failed to realise the gravity of the matter and to register FIR against the accused; thus, the West Bengal Police is at liability:

7.(i) An enterprise which is engaged in a hazardous or inherently dangerous industry which poses a potential threat to the health and safety of the persons working in the factory and residing in the surrounding areas owes an absolute non-delegable duty to the community to ensure that if any harm results to anyone, the enterprise must be held to be under an obligation to provide that the hazardous or inherently dangerous activity must be conducted with the highest standards of safety and if any harm results on account of such activity the enterprise must be absolutely liable to compensate for such harm irrespective of the fact that the enterprise had taken all reasonable care and that the harm occurred without any negligence on its part.

2 Hamid Khan vs. State of Kerala, Crl. M.C. No. 4881 of 2003, Kerala High Court.

7.(ii) If the enterprise is permitted to carry on an hazardous or inherently dangerous activity for its profit, the law must presume that such permission is conditional on the enterprise absorbing the cost of any accident arising on account of such activity as an appropriate item of its overheads. The enterprise alone has the resource to discover and guard against hazards or dangers and to provide warning against potential hazards.³

In the Biroja Temple incident dated 8th Oct 1913, Sub-Inspector-in-Charge initiated court proceedings against General Manager (petitioner), u/s 336 of the IPC, which elucidates the scope of section 336 of IPC (125 of BNS) as casting a liability on the person who is in control of premises to take necessary precautions to ensure safety:

*We are unable to accede to this contention. On the occasion of the festival in question, the temple, it is clear, becomes a place of public resort, and it was the bounden duty of the Petitioner as the person in charge to take all reasonable precautions necessary to ensure the safety of those crowding thither by his license and invitation.*⁴

4. The question as to whether the petitioner is only a partner and not the sole proprietor is not a matter that needed be considered at this stage. At least he was one who was in management.⁵

By not registering FIR against the accused, the enquiry police officer and the recipient police officer failed to exercise reasonable care expected of a competent police officer in similar circumstances. The accused will take this as permission to continue doing business profit at the cost of life and safety of public, which is foreseeable and preventable. Hence, the police officers failed to merit confidence of the public.

Quantum of punishment for the accused The accused runs unregulated business; if court makes the accused to pay monetary penalty; then, later on the accused would make its employees do unpaid overtime to recover that money from its customers, which will turn into exploitation of the employees. Further, a portion of the monetary penalty may be credited to the fund for treatment in State run hospitals of the injured due to blasé attitude of the West Bengal Police and the rest of the monetary penalty may be credited to the fund for domestic help allowance not for the soldiers disabled due to Indian Military service but for the retired judges and their family pensioners⁶. Hence, monetary penalty without remorse is will-o'-the-wisp.

3 Supreme Court of India, M.C. Mehta And Anr vs Union Of India & Ors, DATE OF JUDGMENT 20th Dec 1986.

4 Calcutta High Court case, Rev. No. 396 of 1914, Narsing Charan Mahapatra vs. The King Emperor, AIR 1915 Cal. 295.

5 Hamid Khan vs. State of Kerala, Crl. M.C. No. 4881 of 2003, Kerala High Court.

6 Judicial Department, Govt. of W.B., Letter No. 1029-J JD/V/2A-03/20(Part-III) dt. 22nd March 2024.

Consequence Court may, therefore, punish the accused with imprisonment. By not registered FIR and excusing the accused, however, the enquiry police officer and the recipient police officer have together taken responsibility of the accused in case of repeated violation of the right to life and personal safety of the public and other illegal actions, if any.

Requisition:

- (1) Please direct the Airport Police Station to register the submitted Complaint dated 18th Oct 2025.
- (2) Frame guidelines for vendors to make this state children and aged friendly, and publish the same in your website.
- (3) Implement the guidelines strictly starting with the accused.
- (4) If you find negligence on part of the aforesaid police officers for not registering FIR against the accused; then, please give a fair warning to them; else, within fifteen working days from the date of receipt of this appeal, by the means of your reply letter, you will address the public accordingly. After that period, the accused will do necessary repairing and no physical evidence will remain other than what has been photographed and video recorded. Thanks.

Hopefully, &c.,

Place: Dum Dum, Calcutta.
